Main Issues Report - Response
Development Bid Reference ■■■ B0944 ■■■ Inchgarth Road

I think it is the combination of elements included in the proposed development of this site which makes it suitable for approval/inclusion in the Local Development Plan.

It seems to balance the amount of the site which will be built on and the substantial area where a new open space will be created. The buildings appear to sit well in this setting and the site is well located for its intended residents being within access to public transport and local shops. The new road will be such a great asset to the area.
