Response to the Main Issues Report

Development Bid Reference ■■■ B0944 ■■■ Inchgarth Road

I support the above bid.

Developments of this nature which are designed to suit the developing and progressive needs of the community should be welcomed. Schemes like this should be encouraged as providing a safe community facility for elderly people to habitat and socialise would in my opinion be a popular development.

Given the variety of accommodation being offered the development would appear to be aimed to suit a range of budgets, importantly affordable housing is also in the offer.

The development appears to be well thought out providing a good balance of living and recreation space and will hopefully be given approval.
