Main Issues Report - LDP - Response in relation to Development Bid Reference B0944 Inchgarth Road

Please note my support for the bid to permit development on the land at Inchgarth Road, Cults, Aberdeen for the following reasons.

- The proposed retirement village will meet a recognised need to provide housing commensurate with the requirements of this specific age group.
- The mix of properties offered including a care home will accommodate this group as their requirements change.
- The area to be opened up to all and maintained as a green space will add to the enjoyment of the villagers and all in area.
- The improved access to the Deeside way from within the village, also available to all, will open it up to more to enjoy.
- The new road will assist the residents in getting about and connecting to the retail facilities on Garthdee Road. The current roads in the area are totally unsuitable these days.
