Impacts

This section demonstrates the considerations that have been made in relation to the policy - and that the impact of proposals made is understood and accepted.

2: Equality Act 2010 - Protected Characteristics

Aberdeen City Council wants to ensure everyone is treated fairly. This section identifies the protected characteristics that the policy potentially affects and records the impact and mitigating steps.

2.1 What impact could this policy have on any of the below groups?

Protected Characteristic	What is the impact?
	Negative			Neutral	Positive
	High	Medium	Low
Age		X
Disability		X
Gender Reassignment			X
Marriage and Civil Partnership				X
Pregnancy and Maternity			X
Race			X
Religion or Belief		X
Sex				X
Sexual Orientation				X

2.2 In what way will the policy impact people with these protected characteristics?

The project is to advance works on the re-setting of the school estate

A variety of projects - being progressed to feasibility at this time. School roll forecasts are still being reviewed but not demonstrating significant downward trends to create capacity.

There is ongoing pressure on the school roll from migration and resettlement projects. The variety of projects will impact young people, parents, may impact denominational education, Gaelic language, Roman Catholic schools etc. Project will consider building layouts, signage etc. There may be impacts on young people with additional support needs. Ratio of staff to pupils in class is part of SNCT agreement and will not change due to this project.

2.3 What considerations have been made in reaching the above assessment?

What internal or external data has been considered? What does this data tell us?

Currently a number of options are being considered. These will vary at options are brought forward and developed in more detail.

Some consultations have already been undertaken in the Bridge of Don and Northfield areas. Information from this has been captured.

This will require further review of wider data sets as projects develop.

What consultation and engagement and has been undertaken with officers and partner organisations?

Chief Officers from all other services have had sight of all budget options being put forward. Full formal and informal consultation will be required for each individual proposal.

What consultation and engagement and has been undertaken with people who may be impacted by this policy (e.g. citizens, community groups, or other people/groups)?

Aberdeen City Council launched a three-part public consultation around the 2024/25 Budget and future spending plans from July 2023 to January 2024. In part 1, which ran throughout July 2023, people were asked to award points across different service areas to indicate where they thought the council's spending priorities should be. In part 2, the public could either increase, decrease or not change the level of expenditure in areas listed. In part 3, which took place throughout January 2024, there were two face to face sessions for the public to attend and an online consultation. There were 3,179 responses to part 1, 2,564 responses to part 2 and 285 responses to part 3. Included in all parts of the consultation was a specific question regarding transformation of the school estate. Business case consultation has taken place for Northfield and Bridge of Don options.

5: Children and Young People’s Rights Impacts

The United Nations Convention has 54 articles that cover all aspects of a child’s life and set out the civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights that all children everywhere are entitled to. It also explains how adults and governments must work together to make sure all children can enjoy all their rights.

Children’s rights apply to every child/young person under the age of 18 and to adults still eligible to receive a “children’s service” (e.g. care leavers aged 18 – 25 years old).

The Conventions are also known as the “General Principles” and they help to interpret all the other articles and play a fundamental role in realising all the rights in the Convention for all children. They are:

1. Non-discrimination (Article 2)
2. Best interest of the child (Article 3)
3. Right to life survival and development (Article 6)
4. Right to be heard (Article 12)
