

Local Place Plan - Information Notice Template

Introduction

This document contains two templates, which have the same legal content, but are worded slightly differently to suit the respective intended recipients: the relevant Local Authority Councillors and Community Councils.

How to use this template

Taking each template in turn, copy and paste the contents into your respective email or letter accompanying your proposed Local Place Plan, when you are ready to send it to the relevant councillors and community councils for your area.

Replace the text prompts with information relating to your Local Place Plan and set a response deadline that ensures that councillors and community councils are given no less than 28-days in which to respond with feedback on your proposed Local Place Plan.

Note, the following templates assume that the proposed Local Place Plan and feedback sheet have been published online to be accessed by the councillors and community councils. If your community group is using a different method to carry out its statutory consultation, e.g. by having its proposed Local Place Plan online, but sending out hard copy response forms or requesting feedback via email, please edit the templates accordingly.

How to find the councillor and community council details for your Local Place Plan area

The Council's list and map of wards can help you identify the councillors for your Local Place Plan area and their contact details (see also web address below).

The Council's community council boundary maps can help you identify the community councils any part of whose area is within, or adjoins, your Local Place Plan area, and the list of community council email contacts will help you find their contact details (see also web addresses below).

Should you require advice on the Scottish Government requirements for Local Place Plan information notices, or help to identify the councillors and community councils for your Local Place Plan area, or help with using this template, please contact the Team on: LPP@aberdeencity.gov.uk
