Impacts

Aberdeen City Council has a legal requirement as a public sector organisation to assess the impact of its work on equality groups and assess against human rights, children’s rights and our socio-economic duty. This is our Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED). The PSED has three key parts:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation or any other prohibited conduct.
- Advance equality of opportunity.
- Foster good relations by tackling prejudice, promoting understanding.

This following five sections in the Integrated Impact Assessment demonstrate that these considerations that have been made in the policy, that the impact of proposals made is understood and accepted, and what mitigating steps can be taken to reduce any negative impact of the policy.

2: Equality Act 2010 - Protected Characteristics

Aberdeen City Council wants to ensure everyone is treated fairly. This section identifies what impact the policy may have on people with protected characteristics.

2.1 What impact could this policy have on any of the below groups?

Protected Characteristic	Negative			Neutral	Positive
	High	Medium	Low
Age				√
Disability				√
Gender Reassignment				√
Marriage and Civil Partnership				√
Pregnancy and Maternity				√
Race				√
Religion or Belief				√
Sex				√
Sexual Orientation				√

2.2 In what way will the policy impact people with these protected characteristics?

This will have a neutral impact as the officer recommendation is to maintain the existing budget to the organisations funded from the Common Good.

2.3 What considerations have been made in reaching the above assessment?

What internal or external data has been considered? What does this data tell us?

I have no data as there is no impact on people with protected characteristics.

What consultation and engagement has been undertaken with officers and partner organisations?

We have asked organisations who receive recurring funding from the Common Good to complete an application form to understand what the funding is used for and how this ties in with the LOIP. In 2025/26 Common Good will provide funding for the Cultural Investment Framework, recommendations have been made by the Culture Investment Panel.

What consultation and engagement has been undertaken with people who may be impacted by this policy?

No further engagement apart from that stated above.

2.4 What mitigations can be put in place?

What can be done to remove or reduce any negative impacts of this policy (if applicable)?
There are no negative impacts.
With mitigations in place, what is the new overall rating of the negative impact(s)?	High
	Medium
	Low
	Negative Impact Removed

3: Socio-Economic Impacts

Aberdeen City Council has a duty to reduce the inequalities of outcome that can arise from socio-economic disadvantage. This section is used to consider what impact the policy may have on people experiencing socio-economic disadvantage – and how any inequalities of outcome arising from the policy can be reduced.

Use this guide to understand more on socio-economic inequalities: The Fairer Scotland Duty: Guidance for Public Bodies \(www.gov.scot\)

3.1 What impact could this policy have on people who experience the following aspects of socio-economic disadvantage?

Area deprivation – those who live in an area with poor living conditions, such as higher levels of crime, pollution, noise, congestion, or lack of infrastructure, amenities, or green spaces.		√
Socio-economic background – social class, parents' education, employment, income.		√

3.2 In what way will the policy impact people experiencing socio-economic disadvantage?

It will have a neutral effect as officers are not suggesting any funding is being reduced. Funding continues to be made available to provide to organisations that support vulnerable group, such as the Citizen Advice Bureaux, who will assist those on lower incomes to ensure they get access to benefits, etc. that they are entitled to. Services are open to all.

3.3 What considerations have been made in reaching the above assessment?

What internal or external data has been considered? What does this data tell us?
The only data considered is the budget information.
What consultation and engagement has been undertaken with officers and partner organisations?

What consultation and engagement has been undertaken with people who may be impacted by this policy?

No consultation was undertaken.

3.4 What mitigations can be put in place?

What can be done to remove or reduce any negative impacts of this policy (if applicable)?

If mitigations are in place, does this remove or reduce the negative impact?

No – negative impact remains

Yes – negative impact reduced

Yes - negative impact removed

4: Consumer Impacts

The Consumer Scotland Act 2020 places a Consumer Duty on the public sector to put consumer interests at the heart of strategic decision-making, emphasising the need for accessible and affordable public services, especially during times of financial pressure. This person-centred approach is intended to result in better quality services and outcomes for the public as consumers of public services across Scotland.

This section of the IIA is used to consider the impact of the policy on consumers of any services that the policy is intended to change.
